

Parent Brag Sheet for College Recommendation

If your son or daughter is applying to a college outside of the community college system he or she will most likely need a letter of recommendation from their counselor and at least one teacher. The best way for counselors to gather information from you regarding your child is to have you write a letter of recommendation for him/her as if the counselor were a college admissions person. Please submit it to your child's counselor by the end of their junior year. If you don't have the time for a letter, please answer the questions below and return this page. Feel free to use the back of this page for more room if necessary.
