

Staying Informed

Staying informed and keeping your counselor informed is critical in this process. There are several ways in which we dispense information to you and your parents that we would like to highlight. They are:

- Evening Programs – There are several evening programs that are held to assist you through each step of the process and provide needed information. They include:
 - HS Information Night - for 8th graders and their parents
 - Financial Planning Information Session – for parents of 10th – 12th graders
 - College Information Night for Juniors/The College Search Process – for 11th graders and their parents
 - The College Application Process - for 11th graders and their parents
 - Essay Writing Information Session – for 12th graders and their parents
 - Senior Information Night - for 12th graders and their parents
 - FAFSA Information Session – for parents of 12th graders
- The Counseling and Career Center (C&CC) Newsletters - These are mailed home with each Interim Report during the year. Please read these as they contain timely and important information.
- The High School Guidance Webpage linked to from www.mohonasen.org - This site has a wealth of information including local scholarships, upcoming college visits, course selection sheets, Transcript Request Forms, this packet, forms and other notices.
- The Morning Announcements – Please listen to the morning announcements each day as we use these to share information regarding deadlines, college reminders, college visits, Instant Admission Days, and many other things. The morning announcements are also posted on the High School's Webpage, linked to from www.mohonasen.org.

So let's get started!
